OUR MODEL

TYCL AIMS TO IMPACT NOT JUST CHILDREN, BUT ENTIRE COMMUNITIES. WE EMPLOY A UNIQUE MODEL THAT FOCUSES ON THREE PILLARS

CHILDREN

When communities suffer, children suffer more than anyone else. A community can be measured by how well children are protected and cared for. Our Children's Summer Camp aims to bring joy into the lives of at-risk children. Children also have a vast body of untapped creativity and energy which can be groomed to make them leaders of change. Programmes like N'KaNa, Eco-system based leadership and Child Leader Awards gives children the knowledge, skills, and platform to express their ideas and transform their own communities in the way they believe are necessary.

YOUTH

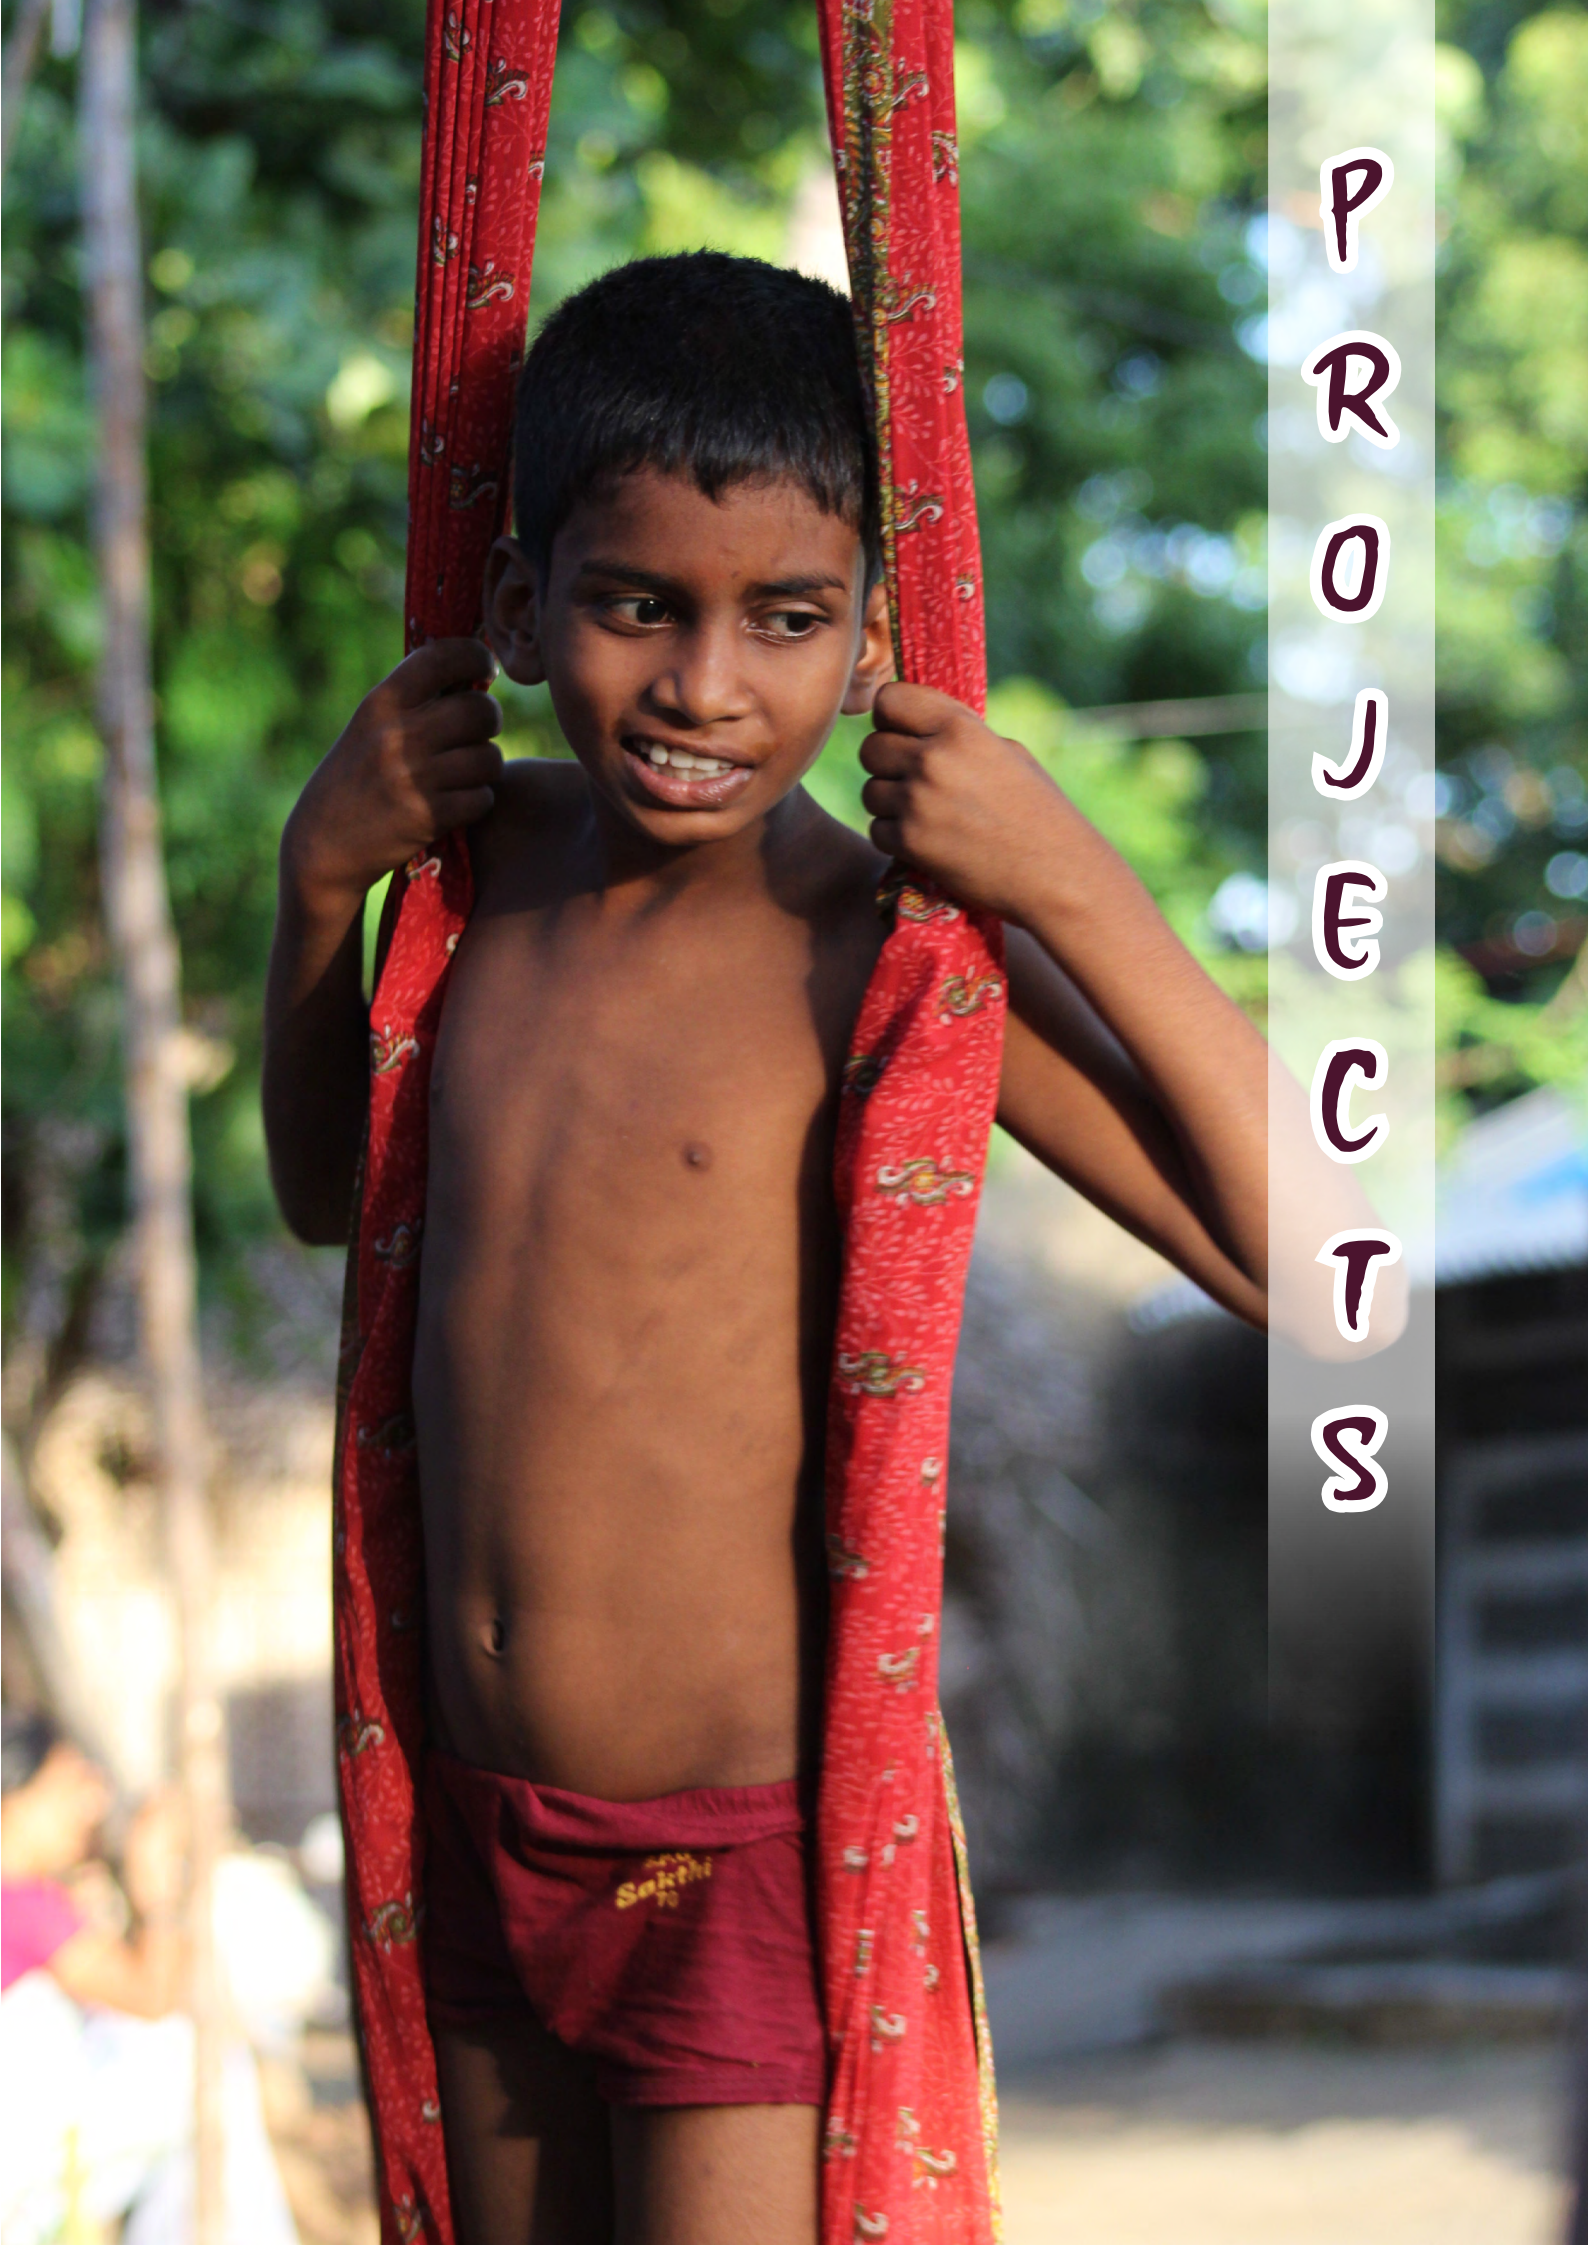

Our organization is completely volunteer-run and survives on the efforts of former and current Pondicherry University and it's affiliated college students. We believe in a system of two-way growth, in which we also provide youth with guidance and platforms for their ideas and creative projects, in exchange for their extensive work with at-risk children. We also recognize that certain community issues, such as alcohol use and suicide rates heavily impact youth and we are addressing these problems in our communities, with programmes like our Puducherry Youth Helpline and Puducherry Youth Helpline Mobile Application.

COMMUNITY

TYCL strives to involve the entire community, in accordance with the belief that children and youth have much to learn from older people in their community, as well as the belief that it is our duty to raise awareness and be engaged with intergenerational issues in our area through INAGI.

YOUTH RESOURCE

Youth Resource has been an idea that has evolved by virtue of its need. Lots of youth need a space to come together and try out with their new ideas. Lot of talking, chatting and coffee need to happen for people to come and make things work out holistically. With this motive we had to rent a space and allocate Technological and Non-Technological resources, so that people can come, utilize, and take their ideas forward. Over the years, this space has hosted various meetings with TYCL volunteers and other organization heads and children. A community Library and Children Incubation house have been set up and a lot of Movie/Documentary screening happening at regular intervals. ECOSYSTEM-BASED LEADERSHIP

The Ecosystem Model will help the youth to confront their real time challenges and to make their lives meaningful and relevant for the present and the future.

Ecosystem-Based Leadership Helps Youth to Answer:

- Who am I? Where do I belong?
- How do I position myself in the growing community?
- What is my role in the community?
- Who are the trustworthy people in my community?
- Where does my inherent value come from?

This leadership model will support them to navigate towards their vision and help them to achieve their goals with a shift in self-discipline, conciseness, skills & behavioural economy, social recognition and system-thinking perspectives for self-transformation and social change. Ecosystem-based leadership program is a set of gamified outcome-oriented activity with learning tools to help each individual to analyse and understand the ecosystem. Young people from different walks of life had participated in this two-day workshop which was held at Ilainargal Education Center, Auroville on 20th - 21st July 2019.
